

Sharps Container Policy

Needles and anything with blood on it must be disposed of in the home's Sharps Container.

No paper or gloves go into the Sharps Container.

Once the Sharps Container is 75% full, the PA must close the top. Then, tape the top down so that no one can open the container and get to the used hazard contents.

Per new regulations, the Sharps container can be thrown into the regular trash.